HUNS ATTACK BRITISH: BIG RAID ON PARIS.

BIG HUN ATTACK ON BRITISH.
Enemy Gain Temporary Success at Polderhoek.

WHOLE OF OUR POSITIONS RECAPTURED.

Sir D. Haig reported yesterday morning as follows:—
Yesterday evening, after considerable artillery activity all day east of Ypres, the enemy's infantry, covered by a heavy bombardment, attacked on a front of nearly a mile from south of the Menin road to north of Polderhoek Chateau.

Despite the intensity of his artillery fire and the determination of his attack the enemy was repulsed at all points except in the neighbourhood of Polderhoek, where his troops succeeded in entering some of our advanced posts on a front of about 200 yards.

In this locality severe fighting took place during the night, resulting in the recapture by our troops of the whole of our positions.

A party of the enemy which approached our line yesterday evening east of Neuve Chapelle was driven off by our fire, and at dawn this morning Portuguese troops successfully raided the German trenches in this neighbourhood and captured several prisoners.

Another successful raid, in which a number of prisoners were captured by us, was carried out this morning by West Kent troops south of Fleurbaix.

ATTACK AT HOUTHULST. ENEMY REPULSED WITH HEAVY LOSS.

Gen. Haig on Friday night reported as follows:—

General Headquarters, 9.35 p.m.
Shortly before dawn this morning, after heavy artillery preparation, the enemy delivered a strong local attack on a front of over a mile south of Houtshulst Forest. On the greater part of this front his attack broke under the fire of our troops. At one point, however, the troops of our line, where the attack was pressed with great determination and supported by Flammenwerfer, the troops holding some of our advanced posts were compelled to fall back a short distance on a front of about 500 yards.

Later in the morning a counter-attack launched in this locality by Yorkshire Light Infantry met with complete success, with the result that the Germans were driven back for a distance of 300 yards beyond our former front line and heavy losses sustained on them. Our positions were completely re-established.

Our casualties in the enemy's counter-attack were light.

ENEMY TROOPS' SUCCESS.

Successive troops carried out a successful raid this morning east of Laventie, with little loss to themselves, and a few prisoners. Hostile artillery has shown considerable activity during the day at a number of points, particularly in the neighbourhood of Plesquieries in the Givency-Neuve Chapelle and Armentieres sectors and east of Ypres.

FRENCH OFFICIAL

MUN COUPS-DE-MAIN FAIL.

The French official communiqué on Friday afternoon stated:—

“In the sector of Reillon and in the sectors of Lericourt, failed completely. There is nothing to report on the rest of the front. A German aeroplane was brought down by our special guns during the day of March 7.”

GERMAN OFFICIAL

SUCCESSFUL RAIDS.

Terms of the Order to Get

50,000 Men,

The Government has decided to proceed with the recruitment of 50,000 coal miners, who are fit for general service, and a communication to that effect has been addressed to the secretary of the Miners' Federation of Great Britain. In order to make available for recruitment the necessary Order has been made by the Home Office.

I hereby withdraw all certificates of exemption issued on grounds of employment to persons employed in or about coal mines who were on Nov. 22, 1917, in the work force of the Miners' Federation of Great Britain.

This Order shall take effect on and after March 21, 1918. The Directors of National Service will get in touch with representatives of employers and men, so that the men selected may be chosen, either by age groups or by ballot, as may be found more suitable. The men so chosen will be given time to consider their position, and guards will be arranged, so as to permit of the retention in the mines of persons who are considered indispensable to the working of the mines.

Applications for the removal of men from the grounds of the exemption will be made to local tribunals within the districts covered by the regulations and instructions for applications for renewal.

FIGHT WITH U-BOAT,

BRAVE SEAMEN HONOURED.

A Newport (Mon.) Central News correspondent wired on Friday:—

“The chief steward of a Newport trading vessel has received from the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty a certificate, placing on record their appreciation of the services he rendered during an action with a U-boat.

The French authorities were generous in the praise of the plucky fight.

The captain of the vessel has been awarded the D.S.O.

BRITISH AIRMEN'S SUCCESS.

(Admiralty, per Wireless Press)

The Italian official communiqué on Friday stated:—

“In the Basin of Laghi (Pozna) our patrols efficaciously harassed the enemy, calling forth a brisk reaction.

At 11.30 a.m. R.E. 100 (A) (Asagi) Plateau hostile parties, who had attempted to reach our lines, were met by machine-gun bursts of fire and flight. Along the eastern sector the Asagi Plateau and in the re-

THE "SIDE SHOWS." ALLENBY PUSHING ON IN PALESTINE.

Gen. Allenby continues his triumphant progress in Palestine. On Friday night the War Office issued the following statement:

“During the period March 4-7 our lines astride the Jerusalem-Nabulus road have been steadily advanced, little opposition being encountered. On March 7 the advance was to a maximum depth of 3 miles on a front of 18 miles.

Bombing Raids:

On March 4 successful bombing raids were undertaken against the railway and aerodrome near El Kukani (80 miles north of Maan), and the road 5th a ton of bombs was dropped on the railway at Kalata-el-Hesa (45 miles north of Maan), and the enemy encampments about Shunes, Nimrin (on left bank of the Jordan, 10 miles east of Jericho). On the 6th enemy troops and transport on road Shunes, El Gherianeh. Ghazanfanji engaged with bombs and machine-guns first. During the night the enemy blew up his bridge over the Jordan at El Gherianeh.

East Africa.

The main enemy force is still north of the Lurio River, and our operations are being continued, despite the difficulties caused by the rainy season.

During January and February 177 of the enemy were killed or captured by our columns operating from Lake Nyasa, in addition to those accounted for by the columns operating from the coast. The abnormal floods of the Zambezi are subsiding.

SEVERAL SQUADRONS REACH CITY.

A French official communiqué issued at 11.45 p.m. on Friday stated:

“A raid by enemy aeroplanes took place in the second half of the night, 10 minutes to 9, when squadrons were reported making towards the Paris region. Our aeroplanes immediately went up. Bombs were reported to have fallen at several points, and casualties and material damage also reported. A later communiqué stated that ‘All Clear’ was reported at 12.15 a.m.

SOME MACHINES TURNED BACK.

According to the present information several enemy squadrons succeeded in crossing our frontier and reaching the Paris region in succession. It is however certain that a number of enemy machines were harassed by our artillery fire and by the activity of our air service, and were unable to accomplish their task. As soon as the warning was given a barrage was opened, and numerous defending aeroplanes responded. The number of aircraft turned back is unknown, but appears to be smaller than that of the machines of the previous raids. The patrol and relief services worked well, and the aeroplanes, by investing.

Lord Mayor's Appeal.

The Lord Mayor has issued a special appeal, in which he says:—

“I have made history on the field of battle. Your name is associated with some of the most glorious episodes of the war. To-day those Londoners of both sexes and all ages who have not yet done so are asked to support with their money the efforts of their menfolk at the front. London so far has done well, but with millions still to be raised, every man, woman and child can do his bit. Let us all do our duty to our country today, to-morrow and the next two days to bring to the tanks every penny they can possibly spare.”

Aeronaut's Request.

One of the crew of a naval airship flying round dropped the following message:

Please reserve me $100. Wai Bonds. I am unable to come down to complete the negotiations, but will send the cheque required if you will notify me.

PRISON FOR PROFITEER.

Sold Margarine Above Price.

“It is an bad a case of profiteering as one could possibly have,” said the magistrate at Thame yesterday, after hearing evidence against Lewis Kaufman, grocer, Watney-st., E., who was summoned for selling margarine above the maximum price. Golda Cash and Rebecca Cash were summoned for aiding and abetting. Mr. Knight, prosecuting for the police, said the summonses were in respect of 19 sales of margarine. On Feb. 2 a queue was formed up outside Cash's shop. P.C. Smith was on duty outside, looking after the people, when Mr. McCarthy made a complaint. The officer went inside the shop and said: “This woman tells me you are selling margarine above the maximum price.” Golda Cash and Rebecca Cash were summoned for aiding and abetting.

WHAT'S ON IN STAGELAND.

GREENROOM CHATTER.

Tomorrow "Romance" celebrates its 1,000th performance at the Lyric. For the week commencing March 25, Messrs. Hart and Zeitlin have arranged with Messrs. E. & F. S. Empires to transfer the entire production of "The Little Drummer Girl" to the Ambassador Theatre, to the Olympia, Liverpool, returning to the Ambassadors on Monday, April 1.

Mr. Andre Charles has arranged to produce "Flora," the new musical comedy by Harry Green and Herman David, and Mayville Gideon at the Prince of Wales' Theatre on Tuesday afternoon. Admission is by invitation only. The first public performance takes place in the evening. The price will be £1.50. Double prices will be charged on this evening only for the boxes, stalls and dress circle. Prices of all other seats as usual.

VARIETY GOSSIP.

A dividend of 25 per cent, less tax, is recommended by the Coliseum Syndicate, Ltd.

"The Bling Boys" is going very strong at the Alhambra. Well deserved compliments to George Robey and Violet Loraine have always been given to us for our work to give a word of praise to the excellent work put in by both of them. Her songs are rendered with great spirit, and the little lady is a real star in her career. In fact, she is one of the human elements that go towards the making of a big success.

Harry Landau and Charlie Chaplin have acted together in a film to be shown in aid of the Red Cross.

The Queen will attend the matinee of the "Gazette" in aid of the funds of the Chelsea Hospital for Women.

We regret to announce the death of George Fairburn, the comedian, who died suddenly while on tour in Sunday last at Birmingham. His age was 54.

Among the newcomers to the Coliseum last week, Nixon Grey made a distinct success with "Ross and Ramona," also Ross and his Postman numbers. He enjoyed several calls in front of the curtain. Brandy Williams caused many thrills by his representation of the mysterious story of a silent man of the fair.

The programme this week at the Palladium includes: Little Tich, Eddie and Maudie Scott, Darrowki, Ernest and Babs, Versatile Three, and Sam Barton.

Joseph Wilson, who used to manage the show, has now resigned his management of the Alhambra, Glasgow.

He returns to London at the end of the month.

The National War Savings Committee's campaign, organised by Mr. Herman Baron in theatres, music-halls, and cinemas during "Business Men's Week," has been a pronounced success.

Albert de Courville's "Smile," is the current attraction at the New Cross Empire, "Hawthorn" the London Empire regular holds the boards. The chief attraction at the Empire, Stratford, is "Bubble and Squeak." Other turns include J. W. Nickay, and the McNaughtons.

The Red Flying Corps makes its first appearance to the public for funds. It does so for the equipment of a seaplane, a valiant home in connection with the R.F.C. hospitals at Eaton-super-Harold.

Brandy Williams, the kindred of Mr. Oswald Stoll, the London Coliseum will be the scene of a great performance on Sunday afternoon, March 17, when the proceeds will be devoted to the R.F.C. hospital's funds.

GEORGE ROSEY HONOURED.

In recognition of his work in raising over £50,000 for war charities and entertaining soldiers at the front and at home, Mr. George Rosey, the well-known pianist, at luncheon at the Criterion Restaurant, Sir William Dunn, ex-Lord Mayor, presided and the company included Lord Burnham, Sir John Hope, Sir Desmond O'Callaghan, and Sir Arthur Pearson. Letters were read from Lord French and Lord Jellicoe. Mr. Roy, of the Royal Mail Transport Volunteers in which he is a lieutenant. He was presented with a silver service and a cheque for £250 for charity. "I know of no man who has done more for humanity," said Sir William Dunn. "He is a man of infinite jest and infinite gravity," said Lord Burnham. Mr. Rosey said: "I have done nothing without the assistance of his brother and sister artists. He had just become chairman of the Music Hall Benevolent Fund and (waving the cheque) "I think I have made a good start."

MEN WHO HAVE MADE GOOD.

GALLANT COLONEL REINSTATED.

Behind prosaic announcements in the London Gazette this week are some stories which are among the most interesting of war's romances. Among the names of the brave men who have been awarded the D.C.M. appear the following:

359 P.S., P. England, Devonshire Regt. (Dorsetshire).
For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty in an attack. An enemy machine gun opened fire on his platoon at close range, and caused many casualties, including his officer and all the N.C.O.s. He at once took command, rallied the remaining men and, though badly wounded himself, rushed to capture the gun. His prompt and courageous action and splendid leadership enabled the advance to continue.

About six weeks ago the "London Gazette" announced that Lieut.-col. Parker England was removed from the Army.

It was on Dec. 12 that the "Gazette" announced that Lieut.-col. Parker England was removed from the Army. During the retreat from Mons, Col. England was in charge of an armoured column and for five days and five nights had only an hour's sleep. In the darkness only, when, as the result of their trek, men and horses were tired out, a start was made on the march. When they didn't know where they would be surrounded. Col. England, with the object of saving his column, ordered a few ammunition boxes to be cast off, but the column passed through the same. He was found and the matter reported. Subsequently he joined the A.S.C. M.T. then as a scout in East Africa, and finally as a private in the Devons in France.

A Free Pardon.

Behind the following announcement in the "Gazette" is the story of a sensational arrest, trial and conviction. Her Majesty, who died on Sunday last at Brixton Hill, was 54.

Among the newcomers to the Coliseum last week, Nixon Grey made a distinct success with "Ross and Ramona," also Ross and his Postman numbers.

He enjoyed several calls in front of the curtain. Brandy Williams caused many thrills by his representation of the mysterious story of a silent man of the fair.

HOW LONG HAVE YOU HAD RHEUMATISM?

THE HOUSEKEEPER.
Fish and Potato Soups (Approved by the Food Control)

Perhaps you are doctoring Symptoms Instead of the Disease. Three Instances of a more successful method.

There are almost as many ways of doctoring rheumatism as there are doctors. Most of these treatments are directed at the symptoms and are not successful if they relieve the pain and stiffness. But the blood remains unpurified and so the rheumatism is sure to return, especially after a season of exposure to cold and damp. There is, however, one method that has proved eminently successful in rheumatism, and that has been verified by many others. Mr. Albert White, who lives at 1a, Albert Road, Winchester. To a representative recently he described his search for something more than relief.

"Many of my fellow workers," said he, "are subject to pains in the back and muscles from lumbar and rheumatism, and I often had to leave work because of awful pain. My trouble was what to do to get relief."

Mr. White, who was present, took up the conversation here:

"I was once a cripple through rheumatism. For some years I had severe attacks, and could scarcely do to myself. Medicines did not seem to do me any good. The pains in my limbs were bad, and I often had to leave work because of awful pain. My trouble was what to do to get relief."

Mr. White, who was present, took Dressing for a Consumptives.

2oz. mutton suet, 2 tablespoonsfuls of flour, 1 pint of quantity of milk. Chop suet very fine, mix with the flour; then with the egg well beaten and a little milk to form a thick batter. Turn out on a greased plate, basin, cover with white muslin and cloth, set tightly and steam in usual way for 10 hours. When cooked, turn out of basin and eat with jam. The suet to which so many invalids object is quite disguised.

Wine and Nutmeg Drinck.

Take 2 nice nutmegs, rub the outer rind of these into a jug, then crush the juice into it. Grate into this a small quantity of nutmeg, add 2 tablespoonsfuls of sugar and a half-glassful of brandy. Let stand 1 hour, and strain through muslin.

Fruit and Vegetables as Medicine.

Fruit as a medicine should be eaten fresh as soon as possible after being gathered. Apples are good for gout on account of their acid properties.

Apples also contain ether, which is beneficial in all liver troubles. Grapes cure both obesity and thinness. Onions cure dropsy. Cabbages are excellent in all cases of rheumatism. Tomatoes are good for the blood. Tomatoes are beneficial to arthritic persons, potatoes to diabetic persons, and spinach to anemic.

Sydney Pudding.

Three tablespoomfuls of flour, 2 tablespoomfuls of sugar, 1 tablespoomful of sugar, 1 tablespoomful of baking powder, 2oz. of butter (or butter and lard mixed). Warm butter and rub in the dry mix. Add 1 pint of milk, 1 egg, 1 oz. of sultanas and 1 small quantity of nutmeg. Let stand 1 hour, and strain through muslin.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

I had taken one box of Dr. Williams' pink pills. I was scared to take them, I found prompt relief.

Pills only taken two boxes of the Dr. Williams' pink pills had quite gone, and my health generally was splendid.

I have never had any return of the rheumatism or pains.

"Now to finish my story," said Mr. White, "I delayed taking Dr. Williams' pink pills until I was scared to take them, I found prompt relief.

I had taken two boxes of the Dr. Williams' pink pills made the stiffness and the pains less severe. In a short time the whole trouble left me. I was free from rheumatism, and never felt it ever since."

Mrs. White added: "My cousin is in the Coldstream Guards, and has been wounded in the war. I remember the time when he could only walk by the aid of sticks. His trouble then was due to severe rheumatic stiffness. But after a short treatment with Dr. Williams' pink pills he got thoroughly well."

Dr. Williams' pink pills are invaluable in diseases of the blood and muscles. They have cured anaemia, after effects of influenza, general debility and sick headaches, dizziness, nervous prostration, and have accomplished results even in cerebral cases. But remember as for Dr. Williams' when buying at shop see that name is on the package. CURRENT TOPICS.

THE MARKET ON THE WAR NATIONAL.

It will have been noted that my suggestion to Tattersall's Committee that some announcement be made in the substitute Line regarding Handicap has been acted upon. The body has very properly decided that as the race has been abandoned all bets as to its value as also are all don'ts and no's. The War National has been substituted for the National. It has been arranged for the Warwick Spring Meeting, but the later fixtures have been transferred to Dunstable Park. No doubt that venue will be decided on Saturday. My suggestion is that it is difficult to lay the mind to understand why, if no railway difficulties stand in the way of racing at Wolverhampton, they should stand in the way of Warwick.

The Seneschal Business.

Meanwhile in clubs and places where sportsmen congregate they are still talking about the Seneschal business at Windsor. At Gatwick I was told that only one knew Lord Derby had written to the stewards of the National Hunt protesting against the action of the Windsor stewards in allowing Seneschal to be withdrawn from the race. The jockey had weighed out, and the animal's number had been displayed for some time as a runner. I can quite understand that an owner like Lord Derby would not be party to such a procedure, but the horse should have run, or if the conditions were not safe for him to run, then they were not safe for the other horses and the race should not have been decided. The National Committee has by now taken steps to prevent the action of the Windsor stewards being taken as precedent.

With a market established on the War National, the racing has brightened up considerably. To start with, Waverley was made a good favourite, but later in the week he gave way to Posthlynn and the race became a real contest for the safety of the money coming from the right people, who have gone on Posthlynn, so that those who fancy the horse can rely upon being on a very good bet. We have now got this in our favour, but we have to take them into consideration when backing a horse in advance of the day of the race. My last information bears out my previously expreised opinion that Chang was likely to represent the Winchester people in preference to Captain Drayton. We saw both out at Gatwick, but whilst the Captain put up a good show, Chang failed to materialise. Captain Drayton is, from what I hear, likely to be kept in reserve for the Lancashire Steeplechase at Manchester on Easter Monday.

The Prospects of Chang. Of course we should have been better pleased had Chang done better than finish third to Fargue and Ballymacad. But as far as I can see, he was only just warming to his work at the end of the three miles, and I am certain he will be seen to all the more advantage of the extra mile and a half in the Ballymacad, and has to allow another 2½ to the more important race. If he keeps all right until then I shall expect him to overtake the longer course. Still it must be admitted that the racing is not very good at Gatwick, and I know several good people who regard Waverley as something approaching a good thing.

They look upon him as quite the best of the lot of yearlings, and certainly we have him since the devastating war broke out amongst us. They look upon that fall of his at Windsor as a blessing in disguise. They attribute it more to lack of experience, and consider Waverley will have learned greatly by it and become more careful in future. A comparison of the Lancashire Steeplechase weights and the race of the War National is interesting. The handicapper of the Manchester race has, of course, had a bit of public form as a guide since the National weights appeared, and the National is a mile further.

Waverley is a mile and a half shorter than at Gatwick, whilst Posthlynn also goes up to the same extent. This may be taken as a tip for the two horses, seeing that in almost every other instance a mile and a half shorter the weight has been lowered. We shall doubtless see many changes and changes during the next few days, and a wait-and-see policy will doubtless be the best. Yet I still think an idea can be had who must have an early interest in the race, cannot do better than stick to Chang.

HORSES TO FOLLOW ON THE ESHER SLOPES.

Everything points to another successful gathering on the Eshel slopes. Undoubtedly this is the home of speed, chasing. We always go good racing, and what is equally important from the purely holiday-makers' point of view, it is a race which can be easily seen to finish. Everyone will be out to learn something about the War National horse for the following week as Gatwick, and several others will be on view. There appear to be one or two reasonably good things, though as a whole winners are not likely to be found too easily.

I am taking a chance on Wednesday in making

NELLIE AGRAH.

The medium of our big bet. She was a smart winner over hurdles in Ireland last year, and we had a taste of her qualities in the Eshel slopes when she won at Brighton. I understand she has been doing good work at Newmarket and at her best she will win. We must give her a chance, and for me, I am in the March Steeplechase. Then if he wins, the proceeds go on him for the War National. Of course, the distance is again only three miles, but it should be remembered that he has the big national tip Waverley, on 8lb. better terms than at Gatwick. SILVER SAINT must carry our money in the Four-Year Old Hurdle. He is in the hands of the Seneschal, York Buildings, Adelphi, W.C., has a scheme for finding employers for any of the women who wish to work as daily helpers in families, but not to "live in."

ANOTHER DAY'S RACE. On Thursday we shall, I hope, lead off with a winner in BALLYMACAD for the Ryeford Chase. He has just beaten to beat the crack, Captain Drayton, last week, and receives 1lb. for the head beating, sufficient probably to turn the tables.

FRAUDS ON WELL-KNOWN FOOTBALLERS.

The case with which a young soldier imposed upon London licensees and a Dog's-ear firm of cut-throats, and a charge of fraud investigated at Derby yesterday. Dressed in khaki, but described as a bollard maker, of Glasgow, R. Stevenson was charged with obtaining £100 from two officers of Slaters' Kensington. Mr. Dixon, prosecuting, said prisoner appeared to have smashed the windows because, while home on 14 days' leave, he had been unable to get fish instead of meat. Prisoner smiled as counsel said this. Det'd. Mr. Warner proposed that at the police station prisoner should be given a meal. "I have been on 10 days, and I have not had any meat. That is how the country serves us." That was utterly untrue, said witness, as prisoner had had meat practically every day while on leave. He was a private in the Royal Fusiliers, and abstained from the cheque book of wife, who was giving 10d. Now he receives 50d.—a decided difference.

LLANTHONY was a useful winner at the last meeting here, and a repetition of that will again get him home to the Warren. Solon, who has now conceded 110s. ST. MAUR reads particularly good business for the D'Abernon Steeplechase. It will be remembered he won at Windsor, but lost the race on an objection.

SPORT JOTTINGS.

At Newmarket, Epsom, and elsewhere last week prominent flat-race jockeys were busily engaged in riding work. Sova Dugout paid a visit to Lambourn. While Warner, who has for so long been interned at Ruhleben, is taking up his position at Newmarket, and intends applying for a license to ride under Jockey Club rules.

Waverley was a very decided favourite when the call came for the Seneschal. He fell in the race Captain Drayton who had only just known Lord Derby had written to the stewards of the National Hunt protesting against the action of the Windsor stewards in allowing Seneschal to be withdrawn from the race. The jockey had weighed out, and the animal's number had been displayed for some time as a runner. I can quite understand that an owner like Lord Derby would not be party to such a procedure, but the horse should have run, or if the conditions were not safe for him to run, then they were not safe for the other horses and the race should not have been decided.
